

FEB MARCH APRIL

AT THE NORTON PUBLIC LIBRARY

Fun at the Library in 2018 !!

Adult Coloring Night will start in February! The third Monday of every month... we will color from 6:00 to 7:00 p.m.... adults will meet, converse, listen to music, eat snacks, and COLOR!! ☺ Just give us a call if you are interested! We will provide the room, music, snacks, coloring pages, and pencils, markers or crayons. Or, bring your own!! Just a relaxing night, with no pressure. ONLY FOR ADULTS 18 AND OVER... no children please.

Computer Classes for adult beginners will begin in 2018. If you want to know the very basics of running a computer, we are here to help! We would be happy to help you one-on-one during the day! Just sign up at the front desk. Dates and times will be determined with interest.

LEGOS, MOTHER GOOSE, CHESS, ART, STORYTIME! We will still have our regular scheduled programming for kids after school in 2018! Call the Library for dates and times!

Come hear the “Poet Laureate of Kansas”!

Monday April 9th @ 6:00 p.m. at the Library

Kevin Rabas

A poet, jazz musician, and professor who teaches poetry and playwriting at Emporia State University.

Rabas will present

“Finding the Extraordinary in the Ordinary”.

Rabas says “Part of the poet’s job is to remind us to observe and cherish the world and our lives in it!”

Have a hobby or art form that you would like to share with the public? Or perhaps you have a special talent that you would like to pass along? Let us know!!! We would be happy to showcase your talent with a display case, or a class to teach!! ☺ ~ NPL COME CHECK US OUT!
